A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Dear Martyrs Family,
 Hard to believe that we're already in August! With that comes the heat, the school year, the just preparing for new things to come.

I did want to invite you to our celebration of Our Lady of La Vang on Sunday, August 18th. We're finalizing the time, but we're looking at 5:30pm. In 1798, Vietnamese emperor Cảnh Thịnh feared the spread of Catholicism and restricted the Faith. Many people fled for refuge in the rainforest of La Vang. In these harsh conditions, they suffered greatly, and many became sick. Mary appeared to them to give encouragement and told them how to boil specific leaves of a tree for much needed medicine.

To celebrate:

1. We'll start in the church with our parish's statue of Our Lady of La Vang.
2. We'll pray the rosary with two decades being prayed in English and three in Vietnamese. I only know the Hail Mary in Vietnamese, so we'll have a parishioner help with the other prayers.

After, a huge celebration with delicious Vietnamese food in our parish hall. The community has always been so generous in feeding the priests at the rectory ... you're in for a treat!

In Christ,

~Fr. Hall
