A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Dear Martyrs Family,
We have important celebrations of Mary coming up.

On August 15th (with the Vigil on the 14th), we have the Holy Day of Obligation celebrating the Assumption of Mary. Times are 5:30pm Vigil on the 14th and on the 15th, 6:40am, 8:10am, and 7pm. We take great joy that Mary, at the end of her time here on Earth, was taken body and soul into heaven. Because Mary did not choose sin even once in her life (even though she was tempted in the same exact ways as any human), God taught us that since no corruption touched her spirit, no corruption would touch her body.

And on August 18th at 5:30pm, we celebrate Our Lady of La Vang (reference last week's bulletin). Rosary with 3 decades in Vietnamese and 2 in English, followed by delicious Vietnamese food in our parish hall!

Overall, I know I love Mary because if we ever have any dissonance with God and might not "feel" like talking with Him, we can always run to Our Mother. It's just great to run to mom to help us work our problems out. She joyfully receives us and will do everything she can to heal our relationship with her Son, Jesus.

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
