A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Greetings!,

First, I want to thank Fr. Hall, the Vision Mission Team, and the staff at North American Martyrs for their work in preparing for Vision Mission Weekend (VMW)! I am excited to see where this renewal will lead all of us in our relationship with Jesus Christ, as individual gifts and strengths are emphasized and fears are dispelled! God is Good!

Secondly, if I may, I'd like to draw your attention to the NAM App and a specific section. This Fall, we Nebraskans have life changing opportunities. Our diocese, in union with the two other dioceses of Nebraska (Omaha and Grand Island) are working to share the Gospel and Culture of Life and so is our parish. If you feel confused, clouded, or removed from what is happening on the ballot this fall concerning the rights of women, children, and families; or if you wonder why a parish can talk about some political topics but not others; or finally if you dislike politics and wonder they at times coincide with your life of Faith, I do invite you to check out the provided media under the banner of "LIFE Changing Opportunity" in the NAM App. There you will find some video explainers, recorded audio prayers, and the Bishop's letter, which you heard before Mass this weekend.

The next 70 days have historic weight in the state of Nebraska concerning the topic of Human rights and dignity, and you and I have a chance to make a difference, I hope the provided materials serve you well as you make a real difference this Fall!

May God Bless you in your generosity and courage!

Godspeed,
Fr. Liam O'Shea-Creal

As cost of living and bills continue to rise, your prayerful consideration of future donations to SVDP is sincerely appreciated.
