A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Still Merry Christmas Everyone!

As Catholics, we continue our Christmas season! We are called to have joy and celebrate even as the world moves on. Our God is here among us!

Even this weekend, we celebrate the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Our statue in the front of our church is a beautiful reminder of the reality of Jesus knowing our experiences. He grew up in a family. He had cousins and was raised in a small town. It can be very helpful to meditate on the family aspect of our savior.

To help us continue this meditation we also celebrate the Holy Day of Obligation: "The Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God." These masses hold together all the motherly moments that Mary went through. From her cooperation with God to conceive Jesus, to the stresses and strains of daily life raising a child, to the sorrow of seeing His passion ... All these moments are crucial and are for our recollection this January 1st. Vigil mass the night before at 5:30pm and masses on the day include 6:40am, 8:10am, and 7pm.

Lastly, as the new year begins, we also have many events that are coming too. I'm just highlighting our Financial Peace University. It starts on January 8th at 6pm. This program assists people to help them learn how to pay off debt, save more money, and build wealth. Contact Joe Brandl for all questions: (402) 477-1895.

May the Lord continue to bless you this Christmas season!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall

CHRISTMAS POINSETTIAS

Our wonderful tradition of inviting all parishioners to join in beautifying the sanctuary for Christmas with donated and dedicated poinsettias continued again this year. Each poinsettia is a gift of love, a symbol of hope, and a reminder that God is with them in their grief—and so is their parish family.

As we enter this holy season, may these small acts of kindness bring comfort and light to those who need it most. Please keep these families in your prayers.
